As part of the Castle in Colour spring season, we are delighted to be exhibiting a selection of the late Eugene Fisk's vibrant paintings in the upper gallery at Hay Castle.

Aptly titled Life in Colour the show is a celebration of Fisk's creative journey to capture the spirit of the places and people that inspired him, and includes previously unseen works from the last decade of his life.

Running alongside this exhibition we are also showing a group of energetic landscapes and abstracts by William Mills in the café.

The Castle in Colour Season runs from the end of February until May, with a stimulating programme of talks and workshops.
